Village Courts in the Bangalore District

From

The Dy. Com^r, Bangalore Dist.

No. 59 Dated 24/26.7.1915 Received 27.7.15

Diary No. 7247	Enclos.	Spare Copies.	Serial No. 7

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

States that the Village Court established at Tavarekere may be abolished as the village contains only about 20 or 25 houses and that a court may instead be established at Sekde, which has a population of 615, with certain other villages added to it and formed into a Court Grp.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

From the Same office, No 64 Dy 26/27.7.1915

States that the Amildar of the Bangalore Taluk proposes the establishment of a village court at Doddelavangala with certain other villages added to it ence requesting sanction to the proposal.

1) Tavarekere was selected for a court as it has a population of 1035. Seekodi has a population of only 615. All new villages have nowhere been grouped together for a court though the Regulation provides for such grouping.

2) In the second letter of the Dy Com^r, certain villages in the Dodballapur taluk are proposed to be similarly grouped together for a court; none of the villages has a population of 1000.

3) As the courts have hardly begun work in this district, may the D.C. be asked to review his recommendation for grouping villages after seeing the work turned out by the existing courts for 6 months

Sir,

With reference to Government Notification No.J.3283/Cts.110-13-27 of the 29th March 1915, establishing "Village Courts" in certain places, I have the honor to state that the Amildar of the Bangalore Taluk, reports in his Itilla No.9 of the 12th July 1915 that the "Village Court" established at Thavarekere may be abolished, as the village contains only about 20 or 25 houses, and has a small population. In its place, he proposes Sekote of the Hessarghatta Hobli, which has a population of 615; and suggests to add to it the marginally noted villages and form it into a group, and establish a "Village Court" there(Seekote)
